

VIRTUAL EXHIBIT EXPLORATION

REMEMBER THE LADIES: THE PATH TO SUFFRAGE AT THE GROUT MUSEUM OF HISTORY & SCIENCE

The Grout Museum's Remember the Ladies: The Path to Suffrage exhibit has gone DIGITAL and is ready to come to your classrooms as a VIRTUAL FIELD TRIP. Follow along with Grout staff as they take you through suffrage history from the birth of our nation, to the ratification of the 19th amendment and beyond.

At the conclusion of the live virtual tour, take part in a 1/2 hour Q&A SESSION with Museum Staff to address any questions that students may have.

COST:

$25 per class

TO BOOK:

Contact Brandon Ramierz at 319.234.6357 or brandon.ramirez@gmdistrict.org

Virtual Tours must be BOOKED TWO WEEKS IN ADVANCE and CANCELLED ONE DAY IN ADVANCE.

ABOUT THE EXHIBIT:

Winning the right to vote was a hard-fought battle for women. Iowans like Carrie Chapman Catt, Amelia Bloomer, Annie Nowlin Savery and Anna B. Lawther were at the forefront of this effort.

Explore the relationship between suffragists in Iowa and the Cedar Valley and the national movement and learn about the changing roles of women throughout the 20th century.